The pro se plaintiff, Ronald Brunson, brings this civil action against the Federal Bureau of Investigation and two federal officials. In his Complaint, Plaintiff alleges, as he has in many other cases filed previously with this court, that the “Federal Bureau of Investigation have had been wrongfully internal investigating me.” (ECF No. 1). Plaintiff filed this action in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this action¹ has prepared a thorough Report and Recommendation and opines that the plaintiff’s complaint should be summarily dismissed without service of process pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. The Magistrate Judge further recommends that this court issue a clear warning to Plaintiff that he will subject himself to the entry of sanctions by the court if he continues to submit the type of frivolous cases based on delusional allegations against these defendants or others that he has been submitting in recent years. The Report sets forth in detail the relevant facts and standards of law on these matters. Additionally, the Report gives a detailed history of Plaintiff's cases with this court, and the court incorporates the Report without a recitation.

The plaintiff was advised of his right to file objections to the Report and Recommendation, which was entered on the docket on June 13, 2012. Rather than filing objections to the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation, the plaintiff filed a letter with the court on July 9, 2012. (ECF No. 26). In the letter, the Plaintiff asks this court to postpone the dismissal of his case until an attorney can prepare documents. It is unclear if he is asking this court to appoint an attorney for him in this matter. This court declines to stay the dismissal of this case and further declines to appoint an attorney to represent the Plaintiff in these frivolous claims. Because Plaintiff does not raise any cognizable objections to the Report and Recommendation in his letter, it cannot serve as Objections to the Report and Recommendation. In the absence of specific objections to the Report of the Magistrate Judge, this court is not required to give any explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

After carefully reviewing the applicable laws, the record in this case, and the Report and Recommendation, this court finds the Magistrate Judge's recommendation fairly and accurately summarizes the facts and applies the correct principles of law. The Report is incorporated herein by reference. Accordingly, this action is dismissed with prejudice and without issuance and service of process.

This court cautions Mr. Brunson that if he continues to file complaints with this court claiming that these defendants or others have implanted a device in his body and that they are investigating him, this court will impose sanctions against Mr. Brunson. Specifically, this court will require Mr. Brunson to pay the full filing fee prior to filing any cases with this court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
